A Family Retreat day will be held at Saint Charles on June 5, led by Nicole Knudsen. Late registration is being accepted, about 100 people are registered.

Vacation Bible School Registration will begin this weekend. I have over a dozen volunteers for Vacation Bible School after my final plea, including a couple of adults. I will have a brief training session in June. Our theme will revolve around the Year of Mercy proclaimed by Pope Francis.

Christian Services: Saint Anne no report

Christian Services: This report was given by Sue Miller. Article for the month of May is on the Homeless Ministry and the Habitat for Humanity. This ministry is chaired by Cheryl Rivard.

Habitat for Humanity – Our first luncheon we will be serving to the volunteers working the site will be June 7th. There will be an article for the next 2 weeks in the Borromeon asking for donated items. We have hamburgers and a macaroni salad donated already. We will still be asking for water, individual bag of chips, Fritos, etc., finger dessert and fruit. One week before the lunch Habitat will let me know the amount of volunteers we will be serving , then I will let those donating a food item know how many they would need to serve. The next dates are July 19 and August 9.

Finance Committee: Pete Lorentz gave his summary of the Saint Anne Budget to council.

Finance Committee: Saint Charles report was given by Father Anthony. He states we are still working on the budget for the church and the school. We have an extension till June 15 to continue to work on this. There will be a meeting on the 8th of June.
